

KHA's Capitol Comments
January 13, 2025

Legislative Session Begins with Swearing-in Ceremony

Today kicked off the 2025 Kansas legislative session. While the committees didn't meet, new and returning House and Senate members spent the day with family, moving in, putting the final touches on their new offices and being sworn in by Chief Justice Marla Luckert and Secretary of State Scott Schwab.

Legislators will look forward to informational presentations by many agencies and organizations, committee work and the Wednesday State of the State Address this week as the work of the 2025 session gets heated up.

You are encouraged to reach out and introduce yourself and your hospital and invite your legislator to attend the KHA Annual Advocacy Day luncheon on Jan. 23, located on the first floor of the Capitol. Click here to find your legislator's contact information. New legislators' contact information is now available as the official swearing-in has occurred. To send a message to your State Senator and State Representative, click on "View Officials," scroll to the bottom of the "State Officials" list, check the box next to their names and click "Compose Message."

KHA staff looks forward to seeing you at the KHA's Advocacy Day on Jan. 23.

Click to Register