Escape the Burnout Trap

2:00 p.m. to 2:50 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 5

Burnout affects more than just frontline providers. Millions of people, from all industries and walks of life, endured prolonged trauma responding to and living through the pandemic. This trauma leads to burnout, the Great Resignation and a whole host of other physical and mental health issues.

Helping people and organizations escape burnout is Erin's mission with every keynote. Her five practical and easy-to-implement mindset shifts, along with her unique and inspiring message lead to real, measurable outcomes for her clients and audiences. If you want to empower your leaders and teams to create stellar work, not just today but years down the road, increase creativity, attract better talent, maximize retention and simply make yourself and your teams happier and more fulfilled in everything they do, Erin's message will bring all of those outcomes straight to you.

Erin Stafford, a marketing expert and seasoned business leader, has navigated the high-pressure world of Type A personalities firsthand. With more than 20 years of experience, she's observed how relentless ambition can lead to burnout. Currently leading a team at the nation's largest health care staffing company, Erin drives hyper-growth and advocates for breaking free from the Type A Trap. Her mission is to help leaders maintain peak performance sustainably.
