During this panel discussion, we will hear from other health care professionals on how they are informing consumers about the differences in original Medicare and Medicare Advantage. Panelists will discuss challenges they are experiencing with the Medicare Advantage program and key considerations people often fail to consider when evaluating the different Medicare plans.

Panelists include:

- Robbie Clausen, chief executive officer, Lakeview Village Senior Living Services
- Alexa McKinley, government affairs and policy director, National Rural Health Association
- Steven Bazan, director of business development, Newman Regional Health
- Karen Mayse, program supervisor, Flint Hills Area Agency on Aging

Uncovering How Medicare Advantage Plans are Not Paying You and What You Can Do About It

Tuesday, October 1
12:00 p.m.

As the Medicare Advantage plan enrollment grows, so too has hospitals' challenges in securing appropriate reimbursement for services to Medicare Advantage members. Richelle Marting, JD with Marting Law LLC, reveals tactics Medicare Advantage plans may use to disguise underpayments and nonpayment of claims, strategies to identify if they are occurring at your facility, and practical steps to rectify the reimbursement issues.
