Price Transparency: Regulations, Legislation and Compliance

In the calendar year 2024 Outpatient Prospective Payment Service final rule, the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services made several changes to the Hospital Price Transparency requirements. These new requirements will be effective in January 2025.

Join us at noon on Dec. 10 for a financial webinar where Kathy Reep, PYA will look at the new requirements for hospital price transparency, as well as some of the key concerns from providers regarding the current regulations. She will also discuss the status of federal legislation related to price transparency and recent reports on provider compliance from both third parties and government agencies.
